THE STORY OF SAFETY

(C) 1919 Ford Motor Company

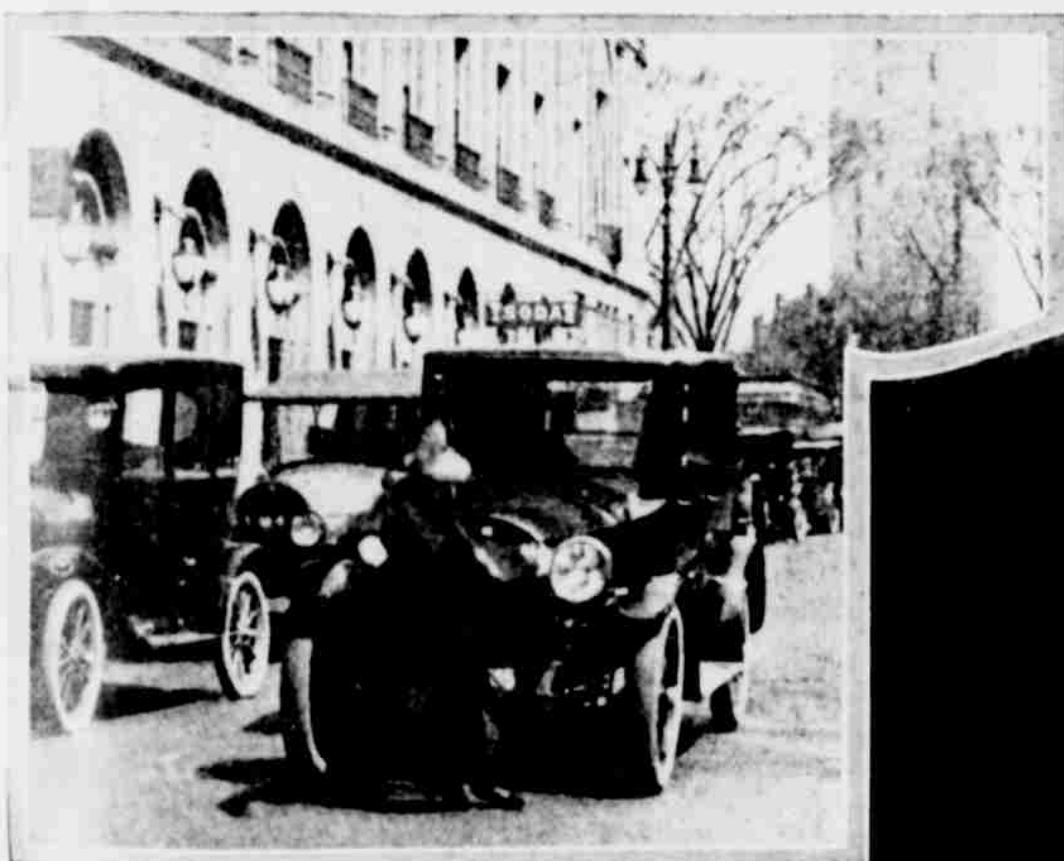

Violation of Safety Rules caused this accident. The driver should have stopped six feet behind trolley—Let's hope they sent him to jail. "Be Sure You're Right!"

The most dangerous and despicable offender is the driver who runs down a Safety Zone—Get his number and report him to the police. "Be Sure You're Right!"

Take your time when crossing a street—Stop—Look—Listen! This young lady had a delightful experience—But, blue-coats are not on every corner! "Be Sure You're Right!"

Drive cautiously if your view is obstructed. This driver couldn't see ahead of a parked car and didn't slow down. Moral: He wishes he had! "Be Sure You're Right!"

This woman started to cross the street between two automobiles parked at the curb—and didn't look—See what happened! "Be Sure You're Right!"

Does your boy ride a bicycle? Tell him to keep away from the middle of the road—See what happened to this boy! Moral: Hug the right curb when you ride a bicycle. "Be Sure You're Right!"

Our Children! Drive carefully when approaching children—children do the unexpected thing. The responsibility rests with the driver. "Be Sure You're Right!"
